CONCORDIA WRESTLERS WIN MEDALS IN CIAU MEET

Gary Kallos and Bruce Decaire, a pair of Bio-physical Education students on the Loyola Campus of Concordia University, won individual medals at the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union National Championships held last Saturday at Royal Military College.

Kallos, a first year student, captured the Gold Medal in the light heavyweight (220 lbs. and under) division as he swept through his five matches undefeated. The Montreal native, who previously wrestled for Dawson College and Lakehead University, is a member of the Canadian National Team.

Decaire, a native of Burlington, Ontario, finished second in the light middleweight (158 lbs. and under) division with a 4 and 1 mark. Bruce, a second-year student also wrestles for the Quebec Team.

The Quebec university Athletic Association sent seven wrestlers to the competition, five from McGill and two from Concordia. They took 2 Gold Medals, two Silver and a Bronze to finish third behind Ontario and Canada West. Victor Zilberman, Quebec's wrestling co-ordinator, accompanied the team to the tournament. Howard Stupp of McGill won the Gold Medal in the 150 lbs. category and was named the Tourney's Outstanding Wrestler.
